CWA

In August 1925 ladies from Quairading held their first official Country Women's Association meeting to elect Office Bearers. This year we will be celebrating our 100th birthday and will be holding special events throughout the year. To start the year off there will be a month of $5 bag sales at the Op Shop. Bags will be available at the door. This event will begin on the 9th January and finish on the 1st February. All items in the Op Shop will be included in this sale with the exception of goods on consignment. We hope to see you at the Op Shop this month.
