COMMUNITY

CREATIVE ARTS SOCIETY

Call all past and current CAS members! Do you own any items stored in the arts storerooms at the CRC that you'd like back? Now's your chance to come and collect! The society is in the process of formally winding up and will donate all leftover assets to the Quairading CRC to carry on local art activities – so now's your chance to get your stuff! Pop into the CRC during opening hours and request the storeroom keys from reception to have a look.

MOTHERS DAY STALL AND RAFFLE

The Country Women's Association Quairading Branch would like to thank all those in the community that supported our Mother's Day Raffle and Stall. It was a huge success and we can only attribute that to the support that we received. The raffle was drawn by Tanya Fairhead from Foodworkz who we must thank for their assistance on the day. First prize of the Patchwork Quilt went to Sam Cato, 2nd prize of the Picnic Basket went to Michael Lubach, 3rd prize went to Carol Geddes and the 4th prize was won by Ben Johnson.

THANK YOU

We would like to sincerely thank the Quairading Tourist & Tidy Towns Committee for their very kind and generous support in replacing the shade cloth behind the RSL Anzac cutouts. Feedback on the improvement has been positive and helps improve the appeal of our town, special thanks to Judy O'Hare for making this happen prior to the Anzac Day Commemorations. Elders Quairading and Terry & Kaye Andrews.

PATHWAYS PLAN SURVEY

The Shire of Quairading is seeking community feedback to help shape future walking and cycling pathways across the district.
